Step 1

After identifying the adjustments related to non-passive activities and reporting these amounts on the appropriate lines of Schedule CA (540 or 540NR), you must then identify the adjustments related to passive activities. If you have adjustments from both passive and nonpassive activities that are reported on the same schedule, you must first compute your PAL.

Use the California Worksheet to the right to determine California net income or net loss from each passive activity. Complete the worksheet for each passive activity. The worksheet calculates your California net income or net loss from each passive activity. The amount to enter in column (d) of the worksheet is found on the federal form on which the activity is reported.

Example: You have a rental loss which is reported on federal Schedule E. The amount of this loss before the application of the PAL rules is found on federal Schedule E, line 22. Enter this amount in column (d) of the worksheet.

Note for partners, members of limited liability companies and S corporation shareholders:

If you own an interest in a partnership or a limited liability company or stock in an S corporation and you determine the activity that you do not materially participate in is passive, skip Steps 1, 2 and 3 and go directly to the worksheets. Use the California amount from your California Schedule K-1 to complete these worksheets. However, if you have passive income or losses from other activities, continue to the next step.

Step 2

Use the amount in column (f) of the California Worksheet to complete Worksheets 1 and 2 to determine the amounts to enter on form FTB 3801, lines 1a, 1b, 2a and 2b.

Step 3

After you have completed form FTB 3801, complete Worksheets 3, 4 and 5 or 6. The allowed losses from Worksheet 5 or 6 are carried back to the California forms or schedules on which they are normally reported to figure your California passive activity loss adjustment amount. If there is no California schedule or form to figure the passive activity loss adjustment amount (e.g., rental real estate loss), use the California Adjustment Worksheet to the right to figure your passive activity loss adjustment.

Step 4

For the passive activity losses that you carried back to the forms or schedules to figure your California passive activity adjustment amounts (e.g., Schedule D or Schedule D-1), enter the adjustment amount from each form or schedule on the corresponding line on Schedule CA (540 or 540NR).

For the passive activity losses that you did not carry back to a California schedule or form (e.g., rental real estate, partnership or S corporation loss), use the California Adjustment Worksheet. Enter the adjustment amounts from line 1(e) and 2(e) on Schedule CA (540 or 540NR), in column B or C on the line for the activity.

California Worksheet (see Step 1) Use this worksheet to figure California income (loss) from passive activities before application of the PAL rules. Attach this worksheet to your California tax return.

Column (a): Enter a description of the passive activity.

Column (b): Enter the name of the federal form or schedule on which you reported the activity (federal Schedule C, etc.).

Column (c): Enter the name of the California form or schedule, if any, used to calculate the California adjustment (FTB 3885A, FTB 3526, etc.).

Column (d): Enter your federal net income (loss) from this activity before application of the PAL rules.

Column (e): Enter any adjustment as a result of differences in federal and California law which are related to this specific activity (e.g., depreciation).

Column (f): Combine column (d) and column (e). The result is your California net income or net loss for this activity.

(a) Passive Activity	(b) Federal Schedule	(c) California Schedule	(d) Federal Amount	(e) California Adjustment	(f) California Amount
Items with Federal Net Losses
Items with Federal Net Income

California Adjustment Worksheet (see Step 4) Use this worksheet to figure your California adjustment from passive activities after application of the PAL rules. Attach this worksheet to your California tax return.

Column (a): Enter a description of the passive activity. If your federal and California amounts are zero after application of the PAL rules, also enter the activity in column (a).

Column (b): Enter the name of the federal form or schedule on which you reported the activity (federal Schedule C, etc.).

Column (c): Enter your federal net income (loss) from this activity after application of the PAL rules (e.g., Schedule C, line 31). Treat all amounts as positive numbers.

Column (d): Enter your California net income (loss) from this activity after application of the PAL rules.

1. Add the column (c) amounts of line 1 and enter the result on line 1(c). Add the column (d) amounts of line 1 and enter the result on line 1(d). Add the column (c) amounts of line 2 and enter the result on line 2(c). Add the column (d) amounts of line 2 and enter the result on line 2(d).
2. CA adjustment. If line 1(d) is greater than line 1(c), enter the difference in column (e) and on Schedule CA (540 or 540NR), in column B on the line for this activity. If line 1(c) is greater than line 1(d), enter the difference in column (e) and on Schedule CA (540 or 540NR), in column C on the line for this activity. Note: If you have a federal net loss on line 1(c) and net California income on line 1(d), enter the difference in column (e) and on Schedule CA (540 or 540NR), in column C on the line for this activity.
3. CA adjustment. If line 2(d) is greater than line 2(c), enter the difference in column (e) and on Schedule CA (540 or 540NR), in column C on the line for this activity. If line 2(c) is greater than line 2(d), enter the difference in column (e) and on Schedule CA (540 or 540NR), in column B on the line for this activity. Note: If you have net federal income on line 2(c) and a net California loss on line 2(d), enter the difference in column (e) and on Schedule CA (540 or 540NR), in column B on the line for this activity.

Items with Federal Net Losses or zero
1 CA adjustment		1(c)	1(d)	1(e)
Items with Federal Net Income

1994 Instructions for Form FTB 3801

California Passive Activity Loss Limitations

These instructions are based on the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) as of January 1, 1993 and the California Revenue and Taxation Code (R&TC).

General Information

In general, California did not conform its law to changes made to the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) by the federal Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 (Public Law 103-66). California legislation during 1994 did adopt specific provisions of the 1993 federal changes and the provisions are specifically identified when appropriate. All other references in these instructions are to the IRC as it existed on January 1, 1993. The following are specific differences that may affect how you figure your passive activity loss (PAL).

Passive loss rules (IRC Section 469):

Beginning in 1994 for federal purposes, eligible taxpayers who materially participate in rental real estate activities will no longer be subject to the limitations on the deduction of passive activity losses. California did not conform to this provision.

Recovery period for nonresidential real property placed in service on or after May 13, 1993 (IRC Section 168): The California recovery period is 31.5 years; the federal recovery period is 39 years.

Expense treatment for small business (IRC Section 179): The maximum allowed under California law is $10,000; the maximum allowed under federal law is $17,500.

Amortization of certain intangibles (IRC Section 197): Property classified as Section 197 property under federal law is also Section 197 property for California purposes; there is no separate California election required or allowed. However, for California purposes, in the case of Section 197 property acquired before January 1, 1994, the California adjusted basis as of January 1, 1994 must be amortized over the remaining federal amortization period.

A Purpose of Form

Use form FTB 3801 to figure the passive activity loss allowed on your California tax return. If you have differences between California and federal depreciation or amortization for an activity, you must use form FTB 3885A, Depreciation and Amortization Adjustments, to figure the California loss before figuring your California PAL. Form FTB 3801 closely follows federal Form 8582, Passive Activity Loss Limitations. In general, if you complete federal Form 8582 to determine the amount of your federal PAL, you may need to complete form FTB 3801.

Generally, California law is the same as federal law concerning PAL limitations. See the instructions for federal Form 8582 for more information on how to figure your PAL.

The specific information below contains the instructions on how to compute your PAL for California purposes.

Personal service corporations and closely-held corporations subject to the passive activity rules must use form FTB 3802, Corporate Passive Activity Loss and Credit Limitations.

S Corporations

The PAL rules apply as if the S corporation was an individual. For example, losses from passive activities may not be used to offset other income, except for $25,000 in losses from rental real estate activities. Refer to IRC Section 469. However, the material participation rules apply as if the S corporation was a closely held corporation. The material participation rules for closely held corporations are explained in the instructions for federal Form 8810, Corporation Passive Activity Loss and Credit Limitations. Refer to IRC Section 469(h)(4) and the regulations thereunder for more information.

To compute your California PAL for S corporations, use the worksheets to determine the amounts to enter on form FTB 3801. Then enter the amount from Form 100S, line 20 (computed without regard to any passive income), on form FTB 3801, line 6. The PAL adjustment amount may be entered on either line 7 or line 13 on Form 100S.

B Who Must File

Form FTB 3801 is filed by individuals, estates, trusts and S corporations that have losses (including prior year unallowed losses) from passive activities. You do not have to file form FTB 3801 if you have depreciation from rental real estate activities that result in net income or a net loss that is fully deductible under the special allowance for rental real estate, AND you have no other passive activities. In this case, use form FTB 3885A, to figure your depreciation adjustment to enter on the appropriate line of Schedule CA (540), California Adjustments — Residents or Schedule CA (540NR), California Adjustments — Nonresidents or Part-Year Residents. See form FTB 3885A for more information.

C Coordination with Other Limitations

Generally, losses from passive activities are subject to other applicable limitations (for example, basis and at-risk limitations) before they are subject to the passive loss limitations. Once a loss becomes allowable under these other limitations, you must determine whether the loss is limited under the passive loss rules. See the instructions for federal Form 6198, At-Risk Limitation for details on at-risk rules. However, capital losses that are allowable under the passive loss rules may be limited under the federal IRC Section 1211. Similarly, percentage depletion deductions that are allowable under the passive loss rules may be limited under IRC Section 613A(d).

Complete federal Form 6198 using California amounts prior to completing form FTB 3801.

General Instructions

If You File Form 540 or Form 540NR: To compute the amount of your California net income or loss you may have to make adjustments to federal net income or loss for items such as depreciation and/or amortization, capital gains (losses) and ordinary gains (losses) that are related to a passive activity.

Report your adjustments related to nonpassive activities from an adjusting schedule or form directly on the appropriate line of Schedule CA (540 or 540NR).

If you have adjustments related to both passive and nonpassive activities that are reported on the same schedule, report any adjustment on Schedule CA (540 or 540NR) only after you have computed your PAL on form FTB 3801.

First figure your losses from passive activities on the appropriate form or schedule (e.g., Schedule D, Schedule D-1, etc.). Carry the loss forward to form FTB 3801 to figure the amount of your passive activity loss limitation. Bring back the passive activity loss to the form or schedule on which it is normally reported to figure your California adjustment amount; and enter this adjustment amount on the corresponding line on Schedule CA (540 or 540NR).

If there is no California schedule or form to compute your passive activity loss adjustment amount, as in the case of rental real estate losses, figure the adjustment amount on the California Adjustment Worksheet on form FTB 3801, Side 2. Transfer the total of your passive activity adjustments in column (e) of this worksheet to Schedule CA (540 or 540NR).

Form 540NR Filers: You must complete form FTB 3801 twice. First, complete FTB 3801 using your total passive activity income and losses for the entire year. Figure the difference between your first FTB 3801 and your federal Form 8582 as explained in Steps 3 and 4 on form FTB 3801, Side 2.

Then, complete a second form FTB 3801 using all your passive activity income and losses from (1) all sources for the period you were a California resident and (2) California sources for the period you were a nonresident. Enter your allowable passive activity income and losses on Schedule CA (540NR), column E.

If you file Form 540NR and complete form FTB 3801, take the amount from Form 540NR, line 17 (adjusted gross income from all sources) and modify this amount according to the federal instructions for Form 8582, line 6. Enter the result on form FTB 3801, line 6 (federal modified adjusted gross income).

If you have adjustments related to a passive activity, follow the steps on form FTB 3801, Side 2.

California Specific Line Instructions

See the instructions for federal Form 8582, Parts I through III, for specific line instructions for completing form FTB 3801, Parts I through III.

Line 1c

Enter the amount of your prior year unallowed California passive activity losses from rental real estate activities with active participation from Worksheet 1, column (c) on line 1c.

Line 2c

Enter the amount of your prior year unallowed California passive activity losses from all other passive activities from Worksheet 2, column (c) on line 2c.

Line 3

If line 3 shows income, all of your losses are allowed including any prior year unallowed losses entered on line 1c or line 2c. Transfer the losses to the form or schedule on which you normally report them. See the instructions below for information on how to report the losses on the different forms and schedules.

Part II

Enter all numbers in Part II as positive amounts, that is, greater than zero. See the instructions for federal Form 8582 for examples.

Line 5

Married persons filing separate returns, who lived apart at all times during the year should enter $75,000 on line 5 instead of $150,000. Married persons filing separate returns who lived together at any time during the year are not eligible for the special allowance. They must enter -0- on line 9 and go to line 10.

Line 6

Enter your modified federal adjusted gross income from federal Form 8582, line 6.

If you did not complete federal Form 8582, see the instructions for federal Form 8582 for how to figure your modified adjusted gross income.

Form 540NR Filers: If you file Form 540NR, modify the amount from Form 540NR, line 17 (adjusted gross income from all sources) according to the federal instructions for Form 8582, line 6. Enter the result on form FTB 3801, line 6.

S Corporations: Enter the amount from Form 100S, S Corporation Franchise or Income Tax, line 20 (computed without regard to any passive income), on this line.

Line 8

Do not enter more than $12,500 on line 8 if you are married filing separate returns and you and your spouse lived apart at all times during the year. Married persons filing separate returns who lived together at any time during the year are not eligible for the special allowance. They must enter -0- on line 9 and go to line 10.

Publicly Traded Partnerships (PTPs)

A publicly traded partnership is a partnership whose interests are traded on an established securities market or are readily tradable on a secondary market (or the substantial equivalent).

Under the passive activity loss rules, California PTPs are treated the same as federal PTPs. Be sure to follow the instructions for Publicly Traded Partnerships in the instructions for federal Form 8582. Also, refer to the section "How To Report Allowed Losses on The Forms and Schedules" below.

How To Report Allowed Losses On The Forms And Schedules. Refer to the section "How to Report Allowed Losses on the Forms and Schedules" in the instructions for federal Form 8582. Follow these instructions and use Worksheet 6 where there are comparable California forms or schedules (e.g., Schedule D and Schedule D-1). Where there are no comparable California forms or schedules, refer to the California Adjustment Worksheet in these instructions.
